In such cases, EMI will be kept unchanged. However, if the EMI is not sufficient to service Interest payment, Company has a right to increase the EMI in such cases.

- 7. Brief procedure for Recovery of overdue: In the event of default in terms of the Loan Agreement(i.e. if the due amount for the loan account of the Borrower is not paid by the due date or in case of breach of any clause of the agreement), the Borrower would be informed from time to time for payment of his dues outstanding on his loan account, by post/ fax/ telephone/ e-mail/ SMS messaging and/or through third parties appointed for collection purposes to remind, follow-up and collect dues, if the need so arises follow up with a notice to such effect and/ or restructuring/ re-phasing of the loan wherever possible as per regulatory guidelines and/ or enforcement of Securities as per the provisions of SARFAESI Act and/ or recovery through legal methods.

The Collection methodology includes the following:

- a. Tele-Calling: It involves contacting the Borrower over the phone and reminding about the overdue and requesting to pay the arrears at the earliest.

- b. Field Visit and Collection: It involves meeting the Borrower and collecting the payment of the amount due. The activity shall be carried out through employees of the Lender or by its authorized representative.
- c. Legal action shall be taken based on circumstances of each delinquent account, as per the policy of the Lender and pursuant to the provision of applicable laws. If the payment remains due for 150 days after three reminders, a Loan Recall Notice will be sent to the Borrower asking him to pay the entire dues at SHFL's discretion. In case the payment continues to remain overdue for 180 days, then a specific case for recovery of our dues will be filed against such Borrower.

Hence, the Lender shall use a judicious mix of tele-calling, field visit, written communication and legal action to ensure proper and effective collection and recovery of overdue for the different category of delinquent account.
